

Resolution on the assassination of Boris Nemtsov

The CDI

Strongly condemns the assassination of the leader of the Russian opposition leader, Boris Nemtsov, a man who was committed during thirty years for the freedom and peace cause in Russian politics,

Expresses its deepest sorrow to the family of Mr. Nemtsov,

Demands the creation of an independent committee which include all political forces and independent associations of civil society to investigate the murder,

The assassination of opposition leaders is not the way to defend principles and values of the International Community to which the Russian Federation is committed.
